Mr. Charles E. M. Rentschler
Vice-Chairman, The Daily Princetonian
36 University Place
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Mr. Rentschler:

I have your letter of November 9th and I appreciate your suggestion that I join with certain other Princeton men in an appraisal of American foreign policy. In view of the nature of my job, which is in the field of intelligence rather than policy, I feel that it would be inappropriate for me to write an article as suggested.

It was good of you to write me and I wish all best success to The Daily Princetonian whose progress I follow as I get the opportunity to do so.

Sincerely,

SENER

Vice-Chairman

November 9, 1968

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
3825 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W.
Washington 16, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Daily Princetonian is planning to publish on December 9 an issue exclusively devoted to an appraisal of American foreign policy by Princeton men. A similar issue last year, while limited to articles by seven members of the faculty, was met with success. In an effort this year to bring more "working knowledge" to such an evaluation, we are also asking several alumni, experienced in government service, to present their views on some aspect of their choosing.

We would hope that you might be able to contribute an article of about twelve hundred words. Realizing the nature of your schedule, we shall appreciate any consideration you can spare.

Respectfully Yours,

Charles E. M. Rentschler
